

WOMEN IN MINING

NEWSLETTER JUNE 2008

ANNOUNCEMENTS & NEWS

19th of June

Will be the date in your diaries for the next Women in Mining event. A short speech on mining in China held by Yisha Xue will be followed by a Q&A session; then a networking function will follow. Fasken Martineau the solicitors are hosting this event.

A more detailed e-mail will be sent to you all prior to the event.

Then summer recess until September when newsletter, events in London including women in mining events etc. will resume.

Job opening

A Norwegian Headquartered, international mining company focused on operating, developing, and exploring for gold deposits is looking to recruit an EVP Operations. This is a COO type role. Being a Scandinavian company, they are very strong on diversity and welcome female applicants. Specifically, they are looking for someone strong on mining operations that would enjoy the challenge of overseeing the running of the company's two operational gold assets – one in North America & the other in West Africa, as well as the company's secondary assets. For practical reasons, this person would need to be based either in Africa, Europe or North America. EVP Operations is a new, permanent, full time role and will report to the CEO.

Skills Requirements

- Strong leadership skills
- West African experience
- Excellent mine engineering, geological or metallurgical experience
- Great communication skills in dealing with all levels
- Good negotiating and influencing skills at an executive political level
- Strong understanding of development into production phase mining
- Highly motivated and motivating
- Demonstrable experience of leading similar projects
- A robust, articulate and winning style
- Some French language skills would be helpful although not a prerequisite – a Scandinavian language would also be an unexpected bonus

There is a competitive package with bonus and options on offer.

Interested candidates can find more information through - Tobin Lambert, tobinlambert@durlerconsulting.com, W: +44 870 770 8083, M: +44 7841 417 605.

Visit to the rocks & gemstones gallery at the Natural History Museum

Only one person showed interest. Anyone else?

If you could let me know of events in advance that would be much appreciated. I'd prefer to send out one events calendar once per month than have to send additional e-mails.

Please let me know of events & contributions for the newsletter at barbara@greenmining.co.uk
